21 Cornhill, Friday
Oct. 23d —

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

Yrs. rec'd. this morning — also, one yesterday. Thanks for the note from Edwin Chapman, which I will carefully return to you soon. —

I send a "Bee" having the Wisconsin correspondence with W. S. Bailey. Mr. B. has never had the names of any ladies there. The $200. came thro' Rev. Hiram Foote. — Mr. B. is at work on a "Liberty Bell" article, which he expects to complete to-day. — He knows nothing whatever concerning those recent Slave Insurrections in Tennessee and Kentucky, and can afford no information.

I shall be happy to aid in sending forward the barrel of apples. It had better not come here before Thursday or Friday of next week; as no steamer goes again from here until week after next. If the barrel can be sent here, on Thursday next October 29th, I can engage to forward it without loss of time to the steamship, and the apples will not be exposed to harm by lying in this warm room.

Your idea of not using Mrs. Martineau's name, on the pamphlet, is I think perfectly correct. - The article is to appear in 3 successive nos. of Liberator, and will then re-appear in a neat pamphlet soon as maybe.

We shall hope to visit the Weymouth Fair.

You speak of an expected paper from Mrs. Gibbons. Such a paper, sent to Mr. Garrison's care at this office, I remailed to you at Weymouth yesterday early, or day before, - I forget which, - pre-paying it, so there's no excuse for its failure to reach you, — if failed, it has, in these failing times.

In reply to your inquiry about pledges, I would say — that your only unpaid pledge to the Mass. [illegible] Anti Slavery Society is that made at the Annual Meeting last January, ~~which~~ was for Ten dollars. — That made in May, at N. Eng.d. Convention, ($20.) is paid. — If you have any pledge made direct to the American A.S. Soc.y, I am unable to say what it is. — The receipt of your $20. was acknowledged in a recent Liberator. Mr. Phillrick does not make regular reports of receipts, as I think he should, but allows them to run along sometimes for 2 and 3 months.

Very respectfully
Yours
S. May Jr.

P.S. I go to Leicester this P.M., but expect to be in the city again next Tuesd. P.M.
